

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's well-crafted Do Not Call list. In fact I don't see why the Federal Do Not Call list can't be like Wisconsin's. To me it makes sense for hard-working telemarketers to AVOID calling people who do not want to be called, plus protecting the privacy and time of those of us who resent being beleaguered by unwanted intrusions.